Hands of Mercy Outreach Center

Fayetteville, Tennessee

All proceeds from this show will benefit the Hands of Mercy Outreach Center in Fayetteville, Tennessee. Hands of Mercy is an inter-denominational outreach providing food, clothing, personal hygiene items, children's school supplies, and home furnishings for those in need. Of particular interest is the Weekend Feeding Program, aka BOBS (Backpack of Blessings). This program provides a bag of non-perishable food that is sent home with critical needs children identified by the school counselors. Also available are several Mobile Food Pantry events at the LC Fairgrounds throughout the year where HOM gives food away to families in need.

A special account has been established at the First National Bank of Fayetteville (Songwriters Benefit for Hands of Mercy, Attention: Heather McCormick) for those wanting to donate to Hands of Mercy or you can drop off your money or food donations at the First Baptist Church of Fayetteville.

Jim McBride, Songwriter

Jim McBride is a CMA Award Winning, Grammy nominated songwriter and former President of the Nashville Songwriters Association International. His writing career spans over 30 years and includes over 100 album cuts, 18 top 40 singles, 10 top ten singles and 6 number ones. Jim McBride's long-time songwriting collaboration with Alan Jackson produced the hits "Chasin' That Neon Rainbow," "Chattahoochee," "Someday," "Who Says You Can't Have It All" and many other songs. McBride also wrote "Bet Your Heart on Me" (Johnny Lee); "Rose in Paradise" (Waylon Jennings); "I'm a Survivor" (George Jones); and songs recorded by Trace Adkins.

Kerry Kurt Phillips, Songwriter

KK's biggest hits include the George Jones Smash, "I Don't Need Your Rockin' Chair", Joe Diffie's, "Is It Cold In Here", "Prop Me Up Beside the Jukebox" and "Pickup Man", and Tim McGraw's "Down On the Farm" and "Do You Want Fries With That". A few of his latest are "Almost Home" sung by Craig Morgan, George Strait's #1 "She Let Herself Go" and Craig's newest release "This Aint Nothin".

Greg Mitchell, Songwriter

I'm a professional songwriter...I just don't make any money at it because I don't have any cuts and I have to have a day job to support my habit...my songwriting habit!

Ron Hackett, Musician

Guitarist Ron Hackett plays an easy listening blend of smooth jazz, light classical, and adult contemporary instrumental music using a combination of finger-style and flat picking on steel and nylon strings with an air of sophistication and refinement that would grace any occasion or event. Ron's chord melody solos are reminiscent of the late Chet Atkins, but Ron's style is a unique blend all his own.
